Roanoke is a dog-loving town. Between the greenways along the Roanoke River, the trails at Carvins Cove and the patios that welcome four-legged guests, plenty of households here share their homes with pets. That love comes with a price, though, usually in the form of fur on the couch, nose prints on the windows and paw prints across the kitchen floor. House cleaning in Roanoke homes with pets is about keeping up with all of it.

The Happy Housekeepers, a Roanoke Valley company since 1979, includes vacuuming carpets and mopping hard surface floors in every standard visit. Regular vacuuming pulls hair and dander out of carpets and rugs before it builds into mats, while mopping takes care of muddy prints and drool marks on tile, vinyl and wood.

Pet hair travels. It collects house cleaning Roanoke along baseboards, drifts under furniture and clings to blinds and window sills. The standard visit covers dusting of window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans, along with dusting or polishing furniture, which gets to many of the places hair settles. Cobwebs are removed and waste baskets emptied along the way.

For many pet owners, a weekly or bi-weekly plan is the sweet spot. Shedding seasons in spring and fall can overwhelm a monthly schedule, and dogs who spend time outside bring in more dirt during Roanoke's wet winters. More frequent visits keep the house fresh without letting hair and grime take over.

Special arrangements for your pets can be discussed with the office ahead of time. Maybe the cat hides in one bedroom, or the dog needs to stay in a crate during the visit. Associates are available by phone or email to help sort out the details, and because staff are bonded and insured by the company, you do not need to be home.

The Happy Housekeepers is licensed, bonded and insured and displays a BBB blue seal. Estimates are free and come with no obligation, and after your first cleaning someone from the office calls to make sure you are happy.

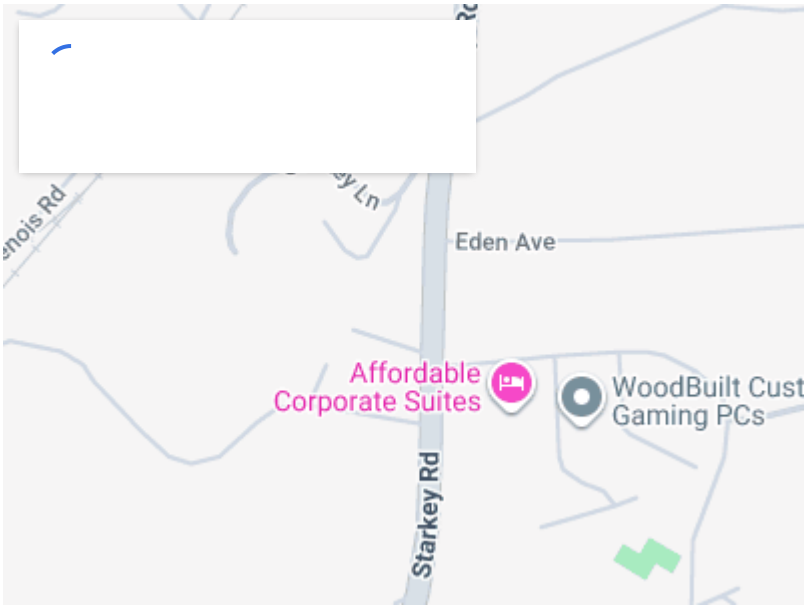

Bathrooms and kitchens get their usual complete clean-ups too, which helps in homes where pets drink from bowls in the kitchen or get baths in the tub.

Window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted, waste baskets are emptied and cobwebs are removed where needed.

Do I need to be home during the house cleaning?

No. Employees of The Happy Housekeepers are bonded and insured by the company, so customers across Roanoke, Salem and Cave Spring do not need to be present. Entry details and any special instructions can be arranged with the office ahead of time.

How often should I schedule house cleaning?

Busy families and homes with pets often choose weekly or bi-weekly visits, while smaller households do well with monthly service. The Happy Housekeepers offers one-time, weekly, bi-weekly and monthly plans, and its residential page also mentions semi-weekly, daily and custom schedules.

What is the difference between a standard clean and a deep clean?

A standard clean keeps the home in good shape, while a deep clean adds tasks that build up over months. The Happy Housekeepers offers spring and fall cleanings plus specialized work such as cleaning oven and refrigerator interiors, washing walls and woodwork, cleaning light fixtures and cleaning basements.

Do you offer move-in and move-out house cleaning in Roanoke?

Yes. Move-in and move-out cleanings are part of the company's regular services for renters, buyers and sellers in Roanoke and Roanoke County. Empty rooms allow the crew to reach every baseboard, cabinet and closet, and appliance interiors can be added.

The Happy Housekeepers accepts Visa, Mastercard, American Express and Discover. That makes it easy for customers who are at work during the visit, or for family members arranging house cleaning for a parent in Roanoke, to pay without being on site.

What happens after my first house cleaning?

Yes. The company offers builder and contractor clean-ups, and customer reviews mention cleaning after floor refinishing and painting. Fine construction dust is removed from floors, sills, baseboards, blinds and fixtures so Roanoke homeowners can enjoy the finished project.
