Step 1: Meeting the Prerequisites

Before engaging with a Hungarian driving license company, candidates should guarantee they satisfy specific legal and medical requirements set by the Hungarian federal government.

Standard Requirements:

- Age Limits: Varies by category (e.g., 17 years old for a basic B-category cars and truck license).
- Residency: Non-Hungarian residents need to hold a legitimate Hungarian residence authorization and have resided in the country for at least 185 days within a fiscal year.
- Medical Fitness: A mandatory medical exam by a local family physician (háziorvos) or occupational health physician to protect a Medical Certificate (Orvosi Alkalmassági Igazolás).

Step 2: Choosing a Driving School (Autósiskola)

While the federal government issues the real license, individuals must first finish their training through a certified driving school. For expats residing in Hungary, finding a company that provides English-language courses is critical.

What to Look for in a Driving School:

- Accreditation: Ensure the school is formally registered with the Transport and Technical Examination Center (KAV).
- Language Support: Many schools in Budapest provide English-language theory classes and multilingual instructors.
- Transparent Pricing: Look out for hidden fees regarding practical lessons, test administration, and fuel additional charges.

Step 3: The Training and Examination Process

The journey to getting a Hungarian chauffeur's license includes a structured pipeline managed by the driving school and the testing authority (KAV).

1. Theoretical Training and Exam

- Coursework: A minimum of 28 hours of classroom or online instruction covering traffic rules, roadway indications, and lorry mechanics.
- The Exam: An electronic multiple-choice test performed at a KAV testing center. It is offered in Hungarian, English, and German.

2. Practical Training (Behind-the-Wheel)

- Basic Driving Skills (Off-road/ Tanpálya): Learning lorry control, parking maneuvers, and reversing in a controlled environment.
- Traffic Driving: A minimum requirement of 29 hours (covering a minimum of 580 kilometers) driven on public roads under the guidance of a licensed trainer.
- Emergency Treatment Course: A compulsory accreditation course and test administered by the Hungarian Red Cross (Magyar Vöröskereszt), unless the applicant holds an exempt medical degree.

3. The Practical Road Test

When the trainer clears the candidate and the emergency treatment certificate is secured, the final practical exam is booked through the driving school via KAV. A main state inspector will evaluate the prospect's driving competence during a 50-minute on-road test.

Step 4: Finalizing the License at the Kormányablak

Upon successfully passing the useful assessment, KAV uploads the outcomes to the central national registry system. The digital record is upgraded within a few organization days, allowing the applicant to visit their regional Kormányablak (Government Window) to request the physical plastic card.

Files Required at the Kormányablak:
