What is a CS: GO Case Battle?

A CS: GO case battle is a multiplayer variation of traditional case opening. Traditionally, a gamer buys a key and a case, opens it alone, and wishes for an uncommon knife. In a case battle, several gamers (usually between two and four) pool their resources to open the precise same set of cases at the same time.

The mechanics are easy yet exhilarating:

1. The Setup: Players select a series of cases they wish to open and enter a shared lobby.
2. The Unboxing: Once the battle starts, all chosen cases are opened round by round. The items drop on a shared screen for everyone to see.
3. The Payout: At the end of the battle, the total financial value of all items unboxed by each individual is computed. The player with the greatest total value wins all the skins from all gamers in that particular battle.
