1. The Case: Earned as random drops through weekly gameplay, purchased on the Steam Community Market, or traded from other players.
2. The Key: Purchased solely in-game for a market price of £ 2.50 GBP.

When opened, the case is taken in permanently, and the gamer gets one random product from that specific collection.

Understanding Case Rarities and Drop Odds

Valve Corporation, the developer of the video game, preserves a transparent technique relating to drop rates, mostly due to regulative requirements in different nations. The products inside any standard case are classified by rarity.

Standard Case Drop Probabilities

Product Rarity	Color Code	Approximate Probability
Consumer Grade	White	N/A (Standard weapon drops just)
Industrial Grade	Light Blue	79.92%
Mil-Spec Grade	Dark Blue	79.92% (for standard skins)
Restricted	Purple	15.98%
Classified	Pink	3.2%
Covert	Red	0.64%
Special Rare (Knives/ Gloves)	Gold	0.26%

(Note: Within each tier, there is also an approximate 10% chance that the weapon skin will include "StatTrak™" technology, which tracks the variety of eliminates made with that weapon.)

The StatTrak™ and Wear Factors

Beyond the base rarity, two extra variables determine a skin's worth:

- Float Value (Wear): Every skin is assigned a float value ranging from 0.00 to 1.00, determining its physical condition:

- Factory New (FN)
 - Minimal Wear (MW)
 - Field-Tested (FEET)
 - Well-Worn (WW)
 - Battle-Scarred (BS)
- StatTrak™: A little digital counter connected to the weapon body. These typically command a greater cost on the market compared to their non-StatTrak counterparts.

Popular Types of CS: GO Cases

Over a years of updates, Valve has launched lots of cases, each tied to a specific operation, esports occasion, or thematic update. Some of the most renowned cases consist of:

The Economics of Unboxing: Is It Worth It?

From a purely mathematical viewpoint, opening cases is a negative-expectation endeavor.

Since the huge bulk of items dropped are Industrial or Mil-Spec grades worth mere cents, the average financial return on a £ 2.50 secret is significantly lower than the cost. Financial experts and data experts who track neighborhood market data regularly find that the expected return value of a single case opening hovers around 40% to 50% of the secret's cost.

In spite of this, millions of cases are opened on a monthly basis. Why?

The Psychology of Opening Cases

1. The Near-Miss Effect: Watching the wheel slow down and stop one pixel far from an uncommon knife sets off the same dopamine action in the brain as actually winning.
2. The Collector Mentality: Many gamers treat skins as digital financial investments, art collection, or status symbols.
3. The Content Creation Boom: Influencers and streamers open countless cases live, enhancing the rare success stories while masking the thousands of failed attempts.
